

The OPL Children's Room presents...

Every Day's a Holiday

July 24th is

Tell an Old Joke Day

Everyone likes a good joke! It's fun to be creative and make up a new joke, but this holiday is the day to tell the classics!

Times change and not every joke ages well, but why not enjoy the ones that did?

- Check out a joke book from the library!
- Write your own ending to the classic "Why did the chicken cross the road?"
- Do a knock-knock joke!
- Check out this list of cheesy jokes. Just because they call them dad jokes doesn't mean moms can't tell 'em too!
- Here's one of my favorites: "I like escalators because an escalator can never break. It can only become stairs" -Mitch Hedberg.
- Not old enough? How about this classic: "Outside of a dog, a book is man's best friend. Inside of a dog, its too dark to read."
