The Ossining Public Library is proud to announce that Carry Cubillos, the library's Cultural Programming Specialist, will be honored as a dedicated community member and person of distinction in Westchester by the Westchester County Board of Legislators. She will receive her award at the Board of Legislators' Hispanic Heritage Month Celebration on September 16th.

Ms. Cubillos, who has worked at the library since 1998, was integral in spearheading Spanish-language programming at the library. "Carry's dedication to the people of Ossining is clear to everyone who knows her," Ossining Public Library director Karen LaRocca-Fels says. "She's tireless in her outreach to the community. I could not be more pleased that she's being recognized for her hard work". Ms. Cubillos has created programs ranging from crafts and cooking, to parenting and citizenship preparation, in addition to translating and offering one-on-one help to patrons.

In addition to her work at the library, Ms. Cubillos sits on the boards of IFCA and the Ossining Microfund. "She's devoted to the Ossining community," Ms. LaRocca-Fels says. "And the library and Ossining are much richer for her work".
