

ABOUT THE OSSINING PUBLIC LIBRARY 2020/2021

The Ossining Public Library, originally known as the Sing Sing Public Library when it was chartered in 1893, started as a collection of 700 books located in the superintendent's office at Park School. The library made a permanent home on Croton Avenue in 1914, thanks to a $26,000 gift from Andrew Carnegie as part of his library building program. Completed in 2007, the library's current 44,000 square foot building offers space for the library's expansive collections, meeting, program and study spaces, a 250-seat theatre, computers for the public and robust WIFI, and magnificent views of the Hudson River.

THE FRIENDS OF THE OSSINING PUBLIC LIBRARY

The library receives vital support from the Friends and the Foundation. The Friends fundraise to support many of the high quality programs and services our community enjoys, and hosts several popular book sales each year. The Foundation raises funds to support large projects outside of the scope of the library budget, including equipment, pilot projects, and the establishment of an endowment fund.

GRANTS

This year, the Ossining Public Library received grant funding from the American Library Association, ArtsWestchester, Communities That Care, Grow With Google, People's United Bank, Public Library Association, and the Westchester Library System, as well as funding from the New York State Public Library Construction Grant Program.

The Ossining Public Library is a School District Public Library chartered by the State of New York to serve all residents of the Ossining School District. As a member of the Westchester Library System, it also provides services to a larger community.

The library is governed by its Board of Trustees, consisting of seven committed volunteers elected by the Ossining community to serve three-year terms. The Board of Trustees is responsible for approving library policies and for presenting an operating budget for a community vote. Over 90% of the library's funding comes from the local tax levy that it voted on each year by the public.

Library staff and Trustees are members of several professional organizations which promote the best practices in the field, networking, and professional development, including:

American Library Association

New York Library Association

Public Library Association

Association for Library Service to Children

Nonprofit Westchester
