

OSSINING PUBLIC LIBRARY

INTERNET ACCEPTABLE USE POLICY

To fulfill its mission of providing public access to information of all types in a variety of formats, the Ossining Public Library provides public access to the Internet. The Internet is a global network comprised of information, multimedia resources and social networks representing a wide range of viewpoints and perspectives.

A. Open Access

1. The Library provides access to Internet resources equally to all Library patrons and upholds and affirms the right of each individual to have access to constitutionally protected material in accordance with the American Library Association's Library Bill of Rights and its interpretations.
2. Patrons must comply with all applicable federal, state, and local laws, including laws governing the transmission and dissemination of information while accessing the Internet, copyright law and with all Library policies and procedures.
3. As required by the Children's Internet Protection Act (CIPA), in order to be eligible for certain federal funding, the Ossining Public Library has implemented filtering on all Internet-accessible devices connected to its computer network. The filter protects against access to obscene materials including child pornography, which in the case of persons (minors) under the age of 17 has been deemed by Ossining Public Library to be harmful. Users should be aware that all filters, including the filter used by the Ossining Public Library, operate with a certain degree of "under-blocking" (i.e., permitting access to certain material that is intended to be blocked) and "over-blocking" (i.e., denying access to certain constitutionally protected material that is not intended to be blocked). The Ossining Public Library has attempted to implement a filter that complies with CIPA while providing library patrons with the broadest possible access to constitutionally protected speech and information. The Ossining Public Library cannot and does not guarantee that the filter will block all obscenity, child pornography or materials to minors. The Ossining Public Library also cannot and does not guarantee that the filter will not restrict access to sites that may have legitimate research or other value.
4. Library staff members are available to assist patrons of all ages to become information literate: to access information efficiently and effectively, evaluate information critically and competently, and use information accurately and creatively.
5. Patrons are expected to abide by the generally accepted rules of network etiquette and shall not use Library equipment, the network, or the Internet for antisocial activities. Such activities include but are not limited to hate mail, harassment, profanity, obscenity, misrepresentation, and impersonation.
6. It is both the right and responsibility of parents and/or legal guardians to guide their own children's use of Library resources in accordance with individual family beliefs. In that regard, parents and legal guardians are solely responsible for supervising their child's use of the Library's computers. Parents and guardians are reminded that the Library is not responsible for the supervision of minor patrons and that such minor patrons may be able to access age-inappropriate or unlawful materials via the Library's computers.

7. Library administration reserves the right to establish rules governing Internet use and consequences for misuse that are consistent with this policy.
8. The Library maintains web sites for use by all patrons to help guide them to sources that are accurate, complete and current. However, not all information found on the Internet is accurate, complete, up-to-date, or otherwise acceptable to all individuals. The Library is not responsible for the content of the Internet, changes in content of the sources to which the Library home pages link, or for the content of sources accessed through secondary links.

B. Security and Privacy

1. The Ossining Public Library will not release information on the use of specific Internet resources by members of the public except as required by law or as necessary for the proper operation of the Library.
2. The Library disclaims any liability or responsibility arising from access to, or use of, information obtained through electronic information systems.
3. The Library is not responsible for the privacy practices or security of any web sites accessed by patrons.
4. The Ossining Public Library accepts no liability for any loss of privacy or data patrons may experience or any damage or harm arising from such loss.
5. Patrons are prohibited from making any attempt to gain unauthorized access to restricted files or networks, or to damage or modify Library owned devices or software; and will refrain from installing software on Library owned computers.
6. Patrons may download or save items on their own computer or peripheral storage device.

C. Public Internet Access with Library Owned Equipment

1. Library administration reserves the right to set the number of Internet session(s) a patron may have per day with Library owned equipment.
2. Library administration reserves the right to set a time limit for patrons' Library Internet session with Library owned equipment.

D. Public Wireless Internet Access

1. The Ossining Public Library provides access to the Internet via a wireless network (Wi-Fi) for patrons to use with their own personal notebooks, laptops, and other mobile devices.

Any person observed using a computer for illegal activities may be subject to legal recourse and permanent expulsion from the Library premises.
