Ossining Public Library

Treasurer Job Description

The Ossining Public Library, a public library governed by an elected Board of Trustees, is soliciting proposals from qualified financial professionals or firms to serve as an independent consultant performing the duties of Treasurer.

The selected consultant will work closely with the Library Director and Board of Trustees to ensure proper fiscal oversight, maintain sound financial practices, and ensure compliance with New York State regulations.

The Board of Trustees of the Ossining Public Library are committed to handling all funds and library assets in a fiscally responsible and transparent manner.

The Treasurer shall act as an independent financial officer and will:

- Oversee library's funds and banking operations, including reconciliations and investments
- Prepare and monitor budgets, cash flows, and financial forecasts
- Generate financial reports for Board meetings and compliance purposes
- Ensure financial controls, policies, and ethical governance are in place
- Have expertise in finance and bookkeeping practices.
- Serve as a paid consultant.
- Be appointed yearly by the Board at their annual reorganization meeting in July.
- Take an oath of office before assuming official duties, the oath to be filed yearly with the County Clerk.
- Sign the library's Conflict of Interest policy yearly.
- Serve as a non-voting officer of the library.
- Be bonded at library expense.
- Attend monthly Board meetings, finance committee meetings, and library training sessions at the request of the Board or the Director.
- Be a signatory on all library bank accounts.
- Sign checks on a schedule determined with the Director and Bookkeeper.
- Communicate with the Director and Bookkeeper about the transfer of funds between various bank accounts so that approved library expenses may be paid promptly.
- Review monthly reports of receipts and disbursements, bank account reconciliations, and financial reports as prepared by the Bookkeeper.
- Advise the board on the allocation of the annual tax levy and best practices to achieve maximum financial benefit for the library.
- Advise on investment of library funds as allowed according to Law only.
- Consult with the Director and Bookkeeper on the development of the yearly budget, as necessary.
- Consult with the Director and Bookkeeper, as necessary, about the State Annual Report and the annual external audit.
- Make an annual report on investments to the Board in August.

 Comply with the law, follow best practices, and adhere to established accounting standards to protect public funds.

As part of the selection process for the position of Library Treasurer, the Library reserves the right to conduct a comprehensive background check on the selected candidate or firm. This background check may include, but is not limited to, verification of identity, employment history, educational credentials, professional licenses or certifications, criminal history, and financial or credit records.

By submitting a proposal, the proposer acknowledges and agrees to cooperate with any background investigation deemed necessary by the Library and to provide any information or authorization required to facilitate such a review. The results of the background check will be considered in the final selection process. Failure to provide consent or to pass the background check to the satisfaction of the Library may result in disqualification or withdrawal of any offer of engagement.
